

What Are Social Skills?

Social skills are how we communicate and interact with each other.

Everyone needs to use social skills.

You should use social skills everywhere. This includes at school, on the bus, at home, and in the community.

It is important to use social skills to build positive relationships and to be a good friend.

